

If you allow Sinclair to air "Stolen Honor" during this period of heavy campaigning immediately before the election as a news program, instead of as political advertising, for which there is a strong argument that it is, you are being derelict in your obligations and duties to this, the greatest democracy ever known. Please hold Sinclair accountable by making them have the Bush campaign pay for this advertising, or prevent them from running it at all. You have this power. We, the people, have entrusted you with it to protect our democracy. We, the people, will hold you and Sinclair responsible if you fail in these duties. Thank you.
